

January ninth issue of Newsweek

____ 1. Which of these groups of foods is among the most commonly associated with allergies?

- a. rice, chocolate and citrus
- b. corn, honey and sunflower oil
- c. eggs, peanuts and shellfish
- d. oats, cheese and tomatoes

____ 2. Under new legislation, food producers will aid allergy sufferers by _____.

- a. limiting the inclusion of common allergens to trace amounts
- b. including even trace amounts of common allergens on package labels
- c. including warnings in product advertising
- d. substituting ingredients when possible

____ 3. What is the central issue in the debate over the National Security Agency's spying program?

- a. the balance of powers among branches of government
- b. the president's determination to infiltrate terrorist cells
- c. the balance between national security and personal liberty
- d. both "a" and "c"

____ 4. What does the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act require intelligence agencies to do?

- a. obtain a warrant before eavesdropping on communications involving Americans
- b. notify foreign entities that their communications may be monitored
- c. notify Congress of current intelligence methods
- d. get congressional approval for eavesdropping programs

____ 5. Reporters Evan Thomas and Daniel Klaidman describe the debate over the spying program as _____.

- a. predictable in a divided nation
- b. mild, considering the issue of executive power
- c. nothing new, historically
- d. unprecedented during a wartime presidency

____ 6. In the midst of violence against medical workers, how are American officials characterizing the insurgency in Iraq?

- a. They say it seems likely to continue indefinitely.
- b. They say such attacks will backfire against the insurgents.
- c. They predict recent elections will quell insurgent activity.
- d. They expect the insurgency to weaken in the face of American resolve.

____ 7. In Iraq, what has been the direct result of insurgent attacks against physicians?

- a. Students are dropping out of medical school.
- b. Specialists in certain diseases are scarce.
- c. Patients are being sent out of the country for major surgery.
- d. all of the above

____ 8. What was the focus of Martin Luther King Jr.'s "Northern freedom movement" in 1966?

- a. equal access to schools
- b. the end of economic discrimination
- c. equal access to health care
- d. exploration of a Chicago mayoral bid

____ 9. What undermined King's commitment to nonviolence as a major force for change?

- a. rioting in black neighborhoods
- b. violent clashes during rallies and marches
- c. the emergence of new "Black Power" leaders
- d. a public backlash against the movement

____ 10. According to Jonathan Alter, what recent efforts have led to positive changes in inner-city Chicago?

- a. federal poverty programs
- b. ties between private corporations and community leaders
- c. legislation mandating public housing
- d. changes in city leadership

TRUE OR FALSE

Mark each statement with a "T" if it is true, or an "F" if it is false. Rewrite false statements to make them true.

____ 11. Milk is among the most common food allergens.

____ 12. Administration officials unanimously approved of electronic spying without warrants.

____ 13. The Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act was written during the cold war.

____ 14. Doctors and other health-care professionals are fleeing Iraq.

____ 15. The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.'s marches in Chicago resulted in landmark legislation.

MATCHING

Write the appropriate letter in front of the numbered item it best describes.

____ 16. red tape

____ 17. panoply

____ 18. incendiary

____ 19. bereft

____ 20. ether

a. inflaming or agitating

b. lacking something that's needed

c. binds judicial warrants

d. open sky through which airwaves travel

e. time-consuming bureaucratic processes

f. calm and peaceful

g. an impressive array

Grab a Newsweek magazine from the top shelf of the bookcase and get out a piece of paper

- ❖ An article or image you find good in some way
- ❖ An article or image that ticks you off
- ❖ An article that taught you something new
- ❖ A political cartoon you can explain (explain it)
- ❖ Something that relates to your life

Choose four of these to respond to

Check out p. 31 for the guy who made his girlfriend eat her cellphone

Grab a Newsweek from the top shelf of the bookcase

Read it and Eat – p. 12 Full Speed Ahead – p22-30

Doctors in the Crosshairs – p. 36 “King’s Final Years” p. 42-45

p.12 – 1,2,11, 21	p.24, 25 – 3, 12, 17	p. 26 – 4, 13, 20, 22	p. 27-28 – 5, 16, 23	p. 36 – 6, 7, 14
p. 42 – 18, 24	p. 44 – 8, 9, 15, 25	p. 45 – 10, 19,

January ninth issue of Newsweek